RE: Public Records Request

Dear Mr. Haworth:

I am in receipt of your three letters of May 12, 1995 requesting that the Clearwater Police Department furnish you with copies of "any records that directly or indirectly relate to or concern the following:"

From your letter concerning a Cult Awareness Seminar that was held at the Calvary Baptist Church on the 28th and 29th of April, 1995. To include:

- a) Copies of correspondence and memos between Clearwater Police Department and any representative of Calvary Baptist Church including but not limited to Reverend Bill Anderson.
- b) Copies of correspondence between Clearwater Police Department and Andre Tabayoyon.
- c) Copies of all correspondence between the Clearwater Police Department and Craig Branch.
- d) Copies of all correspondence between Clearwater Police Department and Lisa Halverson.
- e) Copies of all correspondence between Clearwater Police Department and the Cult Awareness Network concerning the seminar.

There are no correspondence between any of the above requested Persons, Organizations and the Clearwater Police Department.

- f) The names of any on-duty and off-duty police officers involved with Calvary Baptist Church activities between the 27th of April through the 1st of May, 1995.

Any officers which would have been utilized would be exempt from your request by F.S. 119.07(3)(g). 2

- g) A list of all the frequencies used by the Police Department concerning this detail.
- h) Copies of the tapes of transmissions made on those frequencies.

Although a list of all the radio frequencies used by Clearwater Police Department is publicly available to you Anything specifically concerning these activities in particular is exempt by F.S. 119.07(3)(f). Tapes?

- is enclosed* →
- i) Copies of any communications between Clearwater Police Department and Commissioner Fred A. Thomas, Mayor Rita Garvey and Reverend William Anderson between April 27 and May 1, 1995.

There are no communications between the Clearwater Police Department and these individuals within that time frame concerning any activities of Calvary Baptist Church.

From your letter concerning a "conversation between Richard Haworth and Annie" with Detective Tom Miller on May 8, 1995. Detective Miller advises me that he did not have a conversation with you and "Annie" on May 8, 1995.

Detective Miller advises me that he did attempt to communicate with you on May 9, 1995; that at that time you broke off his efforts to communicate with you, and that you asked him to leave your building after you became agitated over him attempting to clarify some of the demands and claims you were making.

Any records of that meeting that may exist would be exempt by F.S. 119.07(3)d).

From your letter concerning a conversation between Officer William Connell, Gaston E. Bacquet and Russell G. Hilton. This was an investigation of a report of possible armed subjects at a downtown business. There is a report on file that is available, and will be furnished. The cost for this is $75.

Dear Mr. Kramer,

I am responding to your public records request dated January 31, 1998 concerning "any and all correspondence concerning or relating to the following: Rod Keller, WDR-German Public Television, Robert Vaughn Young, Arnoldo Lerma aka Arnie Lerma, David J. Hook, Dennis L. Ehrlich, Martin Ottman, Jeff Jacobsen, and Mark Dallara, for the time period of the last two years." I have confirmed that the following Clearwater police Department employees have no correspondence concerning the above, such as telephone notes, recordings, statements, interoffice memorandum, letters, and e-mail: Sid Klein, Wayne Andrews, Paul Maser, Wayne Shelor, Bob Pease, Tom Miller, and J. Carrasquillo.

At this time, I have responded to each public records request you have submitted by providing you the records, by providing you a list of records available for your inspection or copying, or by requesting further clarification to locate the records.

If I may assist you further, please contact me at (813) 562-4455.

Sincerely,
Jill Divens
