Part II, Question 1, Narrative Description of Activities

Bridge Publications, Inc. ("Bridge") was incorporated as a California corporation on February 2, 1981 to serve as the publisher of the Scientology Scripture in the United States and Canada. Its primary activities are to disseminate and proselytize the religion of Scientology by publishing and distributing the Scientology Scripture to Scientology churches and missions and their related organizations and distributing introductory Scriptural texts to the general public through commercial retailers.

Although initially organized as a for-profit corporation, Bridge has operated exclusively for religious purposes at all times from 1981 to the present. Bridge memorialized this practice in 1988 by amending its bylaws to adopt provisions that comport with the organizational test of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and that prohibit Bridge from operating for the benefit of private interests. (Exhibit B.)

Prior to filing this application, Bridge amended its articles of incorporation in order to convert to a California nonprofit religious membership corporation. The restated articles of incorporation and new bylaws that Bridge adopted fully comport with all requirements of section 501(c)(3)'s organizational test. (Exhibits C and D.) As provided by Article Six of Bridge's articles of incorporation, CSI is its sole member.

Before Bridge's conversion to a nonprofit corporation, the shares of all of its stock were held at all times either by Church of Scientology of California or in trust for the Scientology religion. Since 1986 the shares of Bridge's stock have been owned by International Publications Trust, a religious trust organized exclusively for Scientology religious purposes and in accordance with section 501(c)(3). Bridge has never paid dividends or any form of profits to any shareholder or other organization or individual.

Bridge's activities are described in detail below. Detailed information concerning the organizational structure, religious activities and financial affairs of the Scientology ecclesiastical hierarchy and related organizations is contained in the administrative record of the exemption determination proceeding for Church of Scientology International ("CSI"), the Mother Church of the Scientology religion.

Part II, Question 1, Narrative Description of Activities

Scientology Scripture;

Scientology is a religion based upon the research, writings and recorded lectures of its founder, L. Ron Hubbard, which collectively constitute the Scripture of the religion. The Scientology Scriptures are the sole source of all the doctrines, tenets, sacraments, rituals and policies of the Scientology faith. They encompass more than 500,000 pages of writings, nearly 3,000 taped lectures and over 100 films.

Scientology is an exact faith, and a fundamental doctrine of the religion is that its religious services must be orthodox. It holds that spiritual salvation can be attained if, and only if, the path to salvation outlined in Scientology Scripture is followed without deviation. Scientology doctrine also holds that distribution of Mr. Hubbard's religious writings to the public is the most effective method of proselytizing the religion and attracting new parishioners.

Thus the Scientology Scriptures are the heart of the religion and the books and materials that Bridge publishes form the basis for Scientology religious practice. Individual churches and missions of Scientology maintain bookstores where their parishioners can obtain copies of the Scriptures.

CSI's Supervision of Scientology Publishing Activities;

As the Mother Church of the Scientology faith, CSI is responsible for ensuring the availability of the Scriptures world-wide. CSI fulfills this duty through an international network of publishing organizations operated exclusively in furtherance of Scientology religious purposes. The two primary organizations in this network are Bridge, which publishes and distributes the Scriptures in the United States and Canada, and New Era Publications International ApS ("NEP") and its subsidiaries, which publish and distribute the Scriptures in other countries. It is anticipated that in the future the areas Bridge will serve will expand to include all countries in North, Central and South America.

CSI supervises and works closely with Bridge to ensure its activities conform with Scientology ecclesiastical policy and forward and accomplish the purposes and goals of the religion. One of the members of CSI's Watchdog Committee, its highest ecclesiastical body, is directly responsible for ensuring that the Church's international publications network (including Bridge) is established and is carrying out its functions and is coordinated with other sectors of the ecclesiastical hierarchy. Other CSI staff personnel responsible for disseminating the Scripture closely supervise Bridge's operations, providing technical assistance, programs, and guidance. Prices for Scriptural materials are approved by CSI in accordance with Scientology ecclesiastical policy. (See response to Part III, Question 11a.)

Copyrights and Licensing Arrangements;

During his lifetime, Mr. Hubbard held copyrights to the Scientology Scriptural materials and licensed the rights to produce and distribute the Scriptures to various organizations. At present, Mr. Hubbard's testamentary trust (the "Trust") holds his copyrights pending distribution of his estate and is receiving reasonable royalties in exchange for licensing the properties. Mr. Hubbard's testamentary plan requires that these properties be transferred to Church of Spiritual Technology ("CST") if it obtains exemption under section 501(c)(3), or to a Scientology organization whose section 501(c)(3) status already is recognized if CST does not obtain exemption. (CST is filing an application for recognition of its exemption under section 501(c)(3) concurrently with this application.) As a result of these limitations on the distribution of Mr. Hubbard's estate, all copyrights and all royalties produced by the copyrights in his estate are irrevocably dedicated to section 501(c)(3) purposes.

At present, the arrangement pursuant to which Bridge and NEP publish Scientology Scriptural material runs from the Trust directly to each of Bridge and NEP. (Copies of the literary agreements from the Trust to Bridge are attached as Exhibits E and F.) The Trust and BPI also have entered into an agreement pertaining to the distribution of Scientology videos on trade lines. (Exhibit G.) The Trust and Bridge have entered into an agreement by which Bridge is licensed the right to use marks relating to the Scientology religion in emblems and insignia, and books and other publications. (Exhibit H.)

Bridge also publishes and distributes fiction works by Mr. Hubbard. Sales of these works constitute a very small portion of Bridge's total sales and normally have not resulted in net profit. This activity directly forwards Bridge's religious purpose of advancing the Scientology religion by making Mr. Hubbard's name well-known and creating public interest in his other works, including the Scriptures. Sales of Mr. Hubbard's fictional works in 1991 amounted to approximately 4% of Bridge's total gross revenue and resulted in a net loss. The balance of Bridge's gross revenue was from sales of religious works.

The arrangement for Mr. Hubbard's works of fiction also runs from the Trust directly to Bridge for United States and Canadian publication rights. Agreements relating to Mr. Hubbard's fictional work include a literary agreement for books (Exhibit I) and agreements for fiction cassette tapes. (Exhibit J).

The Trust and BPI also have entered into various miscellaneous agreements pertaining to: the publication and distribution of Mr. Hubbard's biography (Exhibit K); the publication and distribution of photographs of Mr. Hubbard (Exhibit L); the manufacture and distribution of two busts of Mr. Hubbard's likeness (Exhibit M); the publication and distribution each year of a calendar bearing photographs taken by Mr. Hubbard (Exhibit N); the publication and distribution of Writers of the Future short story anthologies (Exhibit O); artwork used on book covers, in promotion and book illustrations (Exhibit P); and recording and merchandizing of Mission Earth music (Exhibit Q).

Bridge's Activities;

Bridge has a staff of approximately 70 individuals involved in various functions relating to publishing, promoting and distributing Scientology Scriptures and other literary works by Mr. Hubbard.

Bridge staff, working closely with CSI personnel, plan, design and prepare works for publication and then oversee the printing process. (Bridge contracts out the actual printing of books.)

Bridge has several staff who work fulltime in maintaining contact with churches and missions of Scientology throughout the United States to ensure they have the books and materials they need to disseminate the religion and to make them aware of new materials. Other Bridge staff process orders for books and materials that come in, including locating, packaging and mailing the materials ordered. Bridge maintains a large warehouse with an inventory of books and materials to fill such orders.

Part II, Question 1, Narrative Description of Activities

Other Bridge staff work closely with commercial bookstores and their suppliers to ensure they carry introductory Scriptural texts such as Dianetics; The Modern Science of Mental Health and Scientology; The Fundamentals of Thought. These staff coordinate their campaigns with CSI's broadscale dissemination activities. In the case of Mr. Hubbard's fictional works, Bridge staff work closely with personnel of Author Services, Inc. ("ASI"), which manages the Trust's financial and literary affairs and supervises use of its literary properties.

L. Ron Hubbard also authored a body of work on education, drug rehabilitation and morality that Bridge publishes. These materials are used and distributed by Association for Better Living and Education ("ABLE") and the various social-betterment organizations that ABLE supervises. Basically, ABLE purchases the publications from Bridge and then distributes them to its related social-betterment organizations. These organizations in turn either utilize the publications in their own charitable and educational programs or provide them to other organizations and individuals. (ABLE has filed an application for recognition of its tax exempt status under section 501(c)(3) concurrently with this application.) Detailed information concerning the activities of ABLE and the social-betterment organizations is contained in CSI's administrative record.

Bridge staff personnel also carry out all of the executive and administrative functions necessary to operate the organization as well as the support functions of personnel, treasury, communications and the care and welfare of Bridge staff. The highest ecclesiastical position at Bridge is its Commanding Officer who together with her deputies and other top executives form its executive council, the highest ecclesiastical body in the organization. Beneath the executive council is an advisory council, comprised of the heads of each of Bridge's divisions. These two bodies, subject to ecclesiastical management advice and direction from CSI, direct the day-to-day and week-to-week activities of Bridge.

Bridge's Staff Personnel

Bridge is a "Sea Org" organization, which means its staff members belong to the Scientology religious order, the Sea Organization (or the "Sea Org"). To become members of the Sea Org, Bridge's staff members must pledge the next billion years of their existence to the Scientology religion.

Bridge Publications Inc.

Los Angeles, CA. 90029
Form 1023

Part II, Question 1, Narrative Description of Activities

As a general matter, staff of Sea Org organizations live and work in a manner befitting their fundamental and total commitment to the Scientology faith. They live communally in church-provided berthing and eat communally in a church-provided dining room. They are required to live on church premises, so they can live free of the distractions of the secular world and be ready to attend to their religious duties at any time during the day or night.

Sea Org members are compensated for their ecclesiastical service with a nominal allowance (currently $50.00 a week) and small bonuses for good performance of their assigned duties, room and board, medical and dental cost (as needed) and child care or school tuition for children. They also may receive commissions from sales of Scientology religious books ranging from 2.5% to 15 percent of the sales price.

Since Bridge is subject to federal minimum wage laws, its staff are compensated at the minimum wage rate rather than the Sea Org nominal allowance. BPI staff members who serve as book sales managers are compensated on the basis of either a very modest commission on books they sell or minimum wage, whichever is higher. Usually the amounts received are not more than minimum wage. All Bridge staff members live and eat in the same communal setting as staff of other Sea Org organizations and pay part of their compensation to Church of Scientology Western United States, (which maintains the complex of buildings where Bridge staff and other Sea Org members are berthed) for their food and berthing and other expenses. In the future, Bridge staff may be compensated in the same manner as other Sea Org members provided this is approved by the Labor Department.

Part 11/ Question 3, Fundraising Program

Bridge works closely with CSI staff personnel who design, plan and carry out broadscale dissemination activities for the Scientology religion, which includes television, radio and print media campaigns to disseminate books by L. Ron Hubbard to the public. Bridge staff travel to book fairs and exhibitions and maintain regular contact with publishers of trade publications, such as Publisher's Weekly, to promote Mr. Hubbard's literary works. (Copies of two issues of Publisher's Weekly with an acknowledgement and advertisements for Bridge and Mr. Hubbard's works are attached as Exhibit R.) Bridge disseminates fliers and brochures to churches of Scientology to encourage them to purchase books and materials. (Representative copies of such fliers and

Part 11/ Question 4, Officers, Directors and Trustees

The officers and directors of Bridge are not compensated for their services as such. Each of the officers and directors holds a staff position at Bridge and receives compensation for his or her staff service as discussed in the response to Part II, Question 1. The amounts are listed in the response to Part IV, at Line 17.

Part II, Question 5, Relationship with other Organizations

Bridge's relationship with CSI, International Publications Trust, Author Services, Inc., Mr. Hubbard's testamentary trust, NEP, ABLE, the social-betterment organizations and churches of Scientology generally, is included in the response to Part II, Question 1; more detailed information on the structure, activities and relationships of these organizations and of the churches of Scientology and related organizations in the Scientology ecclesiastical hierarchy is included in CSI's administrative record.

In addition to the above, Bridge leases its premises from Building Management Services ("BMS"), a California nonprofit corporation that holds title to buildings used by churches of Scientology and related organizations. (See response to Part II, Question 9.)

Part II, Question 7, Financial Accountability

While Bridge is responsible for and manages its own finances, it recognizes the ecclesiastical authority of CSI with respect to financial matters that affect the religion. Consequently, Bridge presents proposals to CSI's reserves committee for its approval for expenditure from its reserve accounts. Bridge also provides CSI weekly reports as to its financial affairs as well as its other activities. A representative copy of such financial reports is included in CSI's administrative record.

8 What assets does the organization have that are used in the performance of its exempt function? (Do not include property producing investment income.) If any assets are not fully operational, explain their status, what additional steps remain to be completed, and when such final steps will be taken. If "None," indicate "N/A." Office furniture and equipment, an inventory of books and materials, rights to use Scientology religious works and marks, and leasehold improvements.

Part II, Questions 11a, Determination of Charges

All prices for religious books and materials published by Bridge are set pursuant to Church of Scientology policy and must undergo extensive review by and be approved by CSI.

CSI's policy for setting prices includes the criterion that all amounts must be set to enable churches of Scientology to provide the Scriptures and other materials of the religion in a way that everyone eventually can achieve spiritual salvation. CSI accomplishes this policy by requiring all pricing proposals to undergo extensive review by the executives of the ecclesiastical hierarchy who are involved in the production, dissemination or delivery of the publication or material involved. This extensive review is ecclesiastically mandated to ensure each proposal meets the following criteria.

First, the price must be affordable to a broad segment of the general public. Second, the amount must enable Bridge to recover the costs of production or delivery of the materials. Third, the amount must be sufficient to enable Bridge to remain operational so it can continue performing its religious functions, replenish stocks if necessary, and expand so it can provide for ever growing church of Scientology congregations.

While CSI employed different methods to implement this policy over the years, the basic principles and review procedures have remained unchanged.

Prices for fiction are set to be commensurate with similar works.

Part III Technical Requirements

- 1 Are you filing Form 1023 within 15 months from the end of the month in which you were created or formed? ☐ Yes ☒ No
If you answer 'Yes,' do not answer questions 2 through 6.

- 2 If one of the exceptions to the 15-month filing requirement shown below applies, check the appropriate box and proceed to question 7.

Exceptions—You are not required to file an exemption application within 15 months if the organization:

23 (a) Is a church, interchurch organization, local unit of a church, a convention or association of churches, or an integrated auxiliary of a church;

- (b) Is not a private foundation and normally has gross receipts of not more than $5,000 in each tax year; or,

G (c) Is a subordinate organization covered by a group exemption letter, but only if the parent or supervisory organization timely submitted a notice covering the subordinate.

- 3 If you do not meet any of the exceptions in question 2, do you wish to request relief from the 15-month filing requirement? N/A
☐ Yes ☐ No

- 4 If you answer 'Yes' to question 3, please give your reasons for not filing this application within 15 months from the end of the month in which your organization was created or formed. (See the Instructions before completing this item.)
